Welcome!

Surprisingly, we have feedback, but not from a cadet, it's from a parent! We also have a special cadet committee competition! Firstly, well done to all the cadets, officers and helpers in the colour, fanfare and band competition, you all did really well! So, let's get on with this issue!

Birthday's!

We have to do October's birthdays as well, so a big birthday cheer for the everyone this issue! Ellis Boote, Paul Nicholls, Sandra Boxall, Stuart Ginnaw, Christina Higgs, James Copple YAY!

Feedback!

I on behalf of the parents would like to say how proud we are of the cadets and officers and the success at the National Band Competition.

The band, colour parties, and fanfare group, did us proud as always. Josephine and Lewis were brilliant in both colour parties as usual. They just need to teach Jos that left is left and right is right... (Letters painted onto boots tend to work).

Well done to David who despite have a little hiccup did brilliantly well recovering and not giving up. And of course we can't forget Georgina, 4 years running Best Drum Major!

Of course I have only mentioned a few by name but you were ALL brilliant. Thank you and well done to you all including, Emma, Stuart, James and Jos for putting so much work in over the previous months, and wasn't it worth it! Only 10 months before the practicing starts again! Enjoy the relative rest.

That was from somebody's mum, called Beth, so if that is your mum's name, make sure you embarrass her!

This Issue!

In November we have Remembrance Sunday, the trip to quasar for the band, colour and fanfare (Not in no. 1's please!) an instructors course, the sleepover, a regional shooting competition at Intrepid and our favourite, Rustington Christmas shopping! In December, we only have 2 weeks, and we have a disco, and the last deck night party, so make sure you have Stuart and Emma's pressie!

Competition!

As you all know, we have an adult committee who are in charge of all the money, so how about a Cadet Committee! To be in, you have to be committed, and ready for challenges to decide on what you as a cadet can do! So, if you want to be on this committee, put your name and a short sentence on why you deserve to be on the committee on a piece of paper, and give it in to either me, Ellis or Emma!

Finally.....

I think Agony aunt Ellie is going to retire before we get any worries in, so come on and tell her all your problems, she knows what to do! Get writing in, and e-mailing, ASAP! This issues joke comes from Joseph Buck!

Did you hear about the monster that was called captain Kirk?

He had a left ear, a right ear, and a final front ear!

Contact us PLEASE! We need more than one page an issue!
